

You're invited! A one-day educational workshop sponsored by the Society of California Archivists' Education Committee

☞ Friday February 26, 2010 ☞☞ 9:00 am to 4:00 pm ☞

Sonoma State University Library, 1801 E. Cotati Avenue, Rohnert Park, CA 94928-3609, Room Schulz 2016

☞ Cataloging Rare Books ☞

Through lectures, visual aids, and in-class exercises, workshop participants will be introduced to and gain some practical experience in cataloging rare books using Descriptive Cataloging of Rare Materials (Books) (DCRM(B)). The workshop will focus on the descriptive portions of the bibliographic record, following the scope of DCRM(B), and will attempt to answer the question "What is a Rare Book?" from a cataloging point of view.

The workshop will also present an overview of the nature of rare book cataloging in a research library setting. Participants should have general knowledge of MARC 21-based AACR2 cataloging, and should bring a copy of DCRM(B), if possible.

☞ About the Presenter ☞

Randal S. Brandt is Principal Cataloger at The Bancroft Library, University of California, Berkeley, and is a member of the faculty of the California Rare Book School, where he teaches the popular Rare Books Cataloging course. He is an active member of the ALA/ACRL Rare Books and Manuscripts Section, serving as chair of the Bibliographic Standards Committee 2007-2009. He was also one of the editors of Descriptive Cataloging of Rare Materials (Serials), published by the Library of Congress in 2008.
