

When: Tuesday, April 16, 6-7:30 PM

Where: YRL Main Conference Room, 11360

What: The UCLA Student Chapter of the Society of California Archivists(SCA) presents "Pivoting: Finding Work After Grad School," a panel discussion with recent UCLA-MLIS graduates about their transition from school to full time work in the archival field. This event coincides with the SCA's Annual General Meeting taking place virtually April 15-17th. This event is open to all UCLA MLIS students and alumni in addition to SCA Members.

Panelists include:

Lily Lubin, MLIS '23, is currently the Vault Librarian at IMAX. With an undergraduate degree in Visual and Media Arts from Emerson College, she pursued the Media Archives track while obtaining her MLIS. While at UCLA, Lily was a co-chair of the ARSC student chapter, took part in the 2022 AMIA pathways fellowship, and interned at the UCLA Film and Television Archive.

Lisa Kahn, MLIS '21, is a Project Archivist at the Center for the Study of Political Graphics (CSPG), and is responsible for digitizing CSPG's 90,000+ posters. Since 2016, she has worked for six archival institutions including the Fox Studios Archive, the Mazer Lesbian Archives, the Jewish Women's Archive, and Zion National Park.

Lizbeth Sharon, MLIS '22, is currently the Digital Assets and Records Manager at the Autry Museum of the American West. There, they manage digital assets related to collection items, as well as the digital records repository as a whole.

Coryn Hardison, MLIS '21, is currently the CSU Archivist at California State University, Dominguez Hills (CSUDH), where she manages the collections that document the history of the CSU system. She has previously worked at the Chinese Historical Society of Southern California, the National Archives in Washington, D.C., and UC Irvine Special Collections & Archives.
